

America's Forgotten Victims in the Arrogant and Corrupt War on Drugs

While attention is riveted on terrorists and threats coming from outside the United States, the internal threats inflicting great harm through the sham and corrupt war on drugs continues in full force. Learn what several dozen government insiders discovered and sought to make known to the American people and how you can help. Discover, for instance:

- ◆ How thousands of innocent men and women are sent to prison on fraudulent drug and other charges and perjured testimony
- ◆ The army of government agents, informants, and prosecutors that prey upon innocent people, and through fraud and perjury, bring about their imprisonment.
- ◆ Deep-seated corruption within the FAA that prevented air safety agents from reporting and acting on major air safety violations and safety problems—despite continuing related air disasters.
- ◆ The self-serving actions by members of Congress and their “feel-good” draconian prison sentences and conspiracy laws that imprison – sometimes for life – innocent people.
- ◆ Secret bank accounts for key politicians, including several well-known national figures, funded from covert CIA drug operations.
- ◆ Discover the tactics routinely used against people – like you – who are falsely charged and sentenced to prison.
- ◆ Long history of drug smuggling into the United States by people acting under cover of government offices and covert operations.
- ◆ Drug money going to politicians in both political parties.
- ◆ How Justice Department employees are a far greater danger to Americans than terrorists.
- ◆ The public indifference that permits these conditions to continue.
- ◆ Discover the links between this culture and the events of 9-11.

Here are the tools enabling you to learn about these matters,
And how to protect yourself:
