

Learn The Truth About Corruption In The Federal Courts, From The Bottom To The Very Top!

Forget your constitutional rights, as federal judges destroy important protections while covering up for criminal activities in high government offices. This is not hyperbole. These are the findings of government insiders presented for the public's protection by courageous government whistleblowers!

The books, written by former federal investigator Rodney Stich, and assisted by dozens of other government agents, including the heads of secret CIA airlines and financial institutions, exposes corruption in key government offices, including the federal courts. Learn about the unpublicized but documented acts by federal judges, including Supreme Court Justices, destroying statutory and constitutional protections, especially for those who expose corrupt government officials and corrupt covert activities. Discover how:

- Federal judges feloniously obstruct justice, blocking the reporting of high level criminal activities, including CIA drug smuggling into the United States.
- Federal judges unlawfully and unconstitutionally bar whistleblowers from federal courts and federal protections, while simultaneously misusing the courts to inflict great harm upon them.
- State judges cooperate in high-level schemes to silence whistleblowers, violating with impunity major constitutional rights and protections.
- Federal judges sentence whistleblowers to prison in retaliation for reporting criminal activities in high government offices, including the courts.
- Federal judges force whistleblowers into bankruptcy courts and then unlawfully and corruptly seize the assets used to fund exposure of corruption in key government positions. In one example, the judge then issued orders barring the person from filing objections to the seizure of his life's assets. Supreme Court Justices aid and abet these criminal activities that continue to undermine the internal security of the United States.
- Federal judges violate criminal and civil rights statutes, with specific examples, including 18 U.S.C. Sections 2, 3, 4, 241, 242, 245, 246, 1505, 1510, 1512, 1513(b), 1515, 42 §§ 1983-1986, which includes obstruction of justice, misprison of felonies, aiding and abetting.
- Federal judges cover up the scandals.
- Federal judges charge whistleblowers with criminal contempt of court in retaliation for reporting federal crimes and exercising federal defenses against the retaliation.
- Attorneys sabotage national interests to protect judicial corruption.
- All of the above are corrupt acts that are documented in judicial records.
