

It's Long Past the Time For the Public To Address the Deep-Seated Corruption and Cover-Ups That Made 9-11 Possible!

Only an informed and outraged public can bring to light and correct the arrogant corruption in government offices, and its cover-up, that made the 3,000 deaths on 9-11 possible. The events of 9-11 were only one morning's blips on a broad range of tragedies arising from the Trojan horse corruption affecting the security of the United States.

- Discover what real government whistleblowers learned as the author and his group of government insiders fought an ongoing David versus Goliath battle, to expose these corrupt conditions.
- Corruption of such great and deadly magnitude that even the lawyers for the families of those killed on 9-11 won't address them.
- Discover why members of Congress, federal judges, and Justice Department personnel have for years blocked the exposure of the corruption that made 9-11 and other tragedies possible. These people will never allow the truth to be known to the public.
- Discover how federal judges in New York and Washington are blocking exposure of the corruption that made 9-11 possible.
- Discover why a federal aviation safety agent was forced to act as an independent prosecutor, why he filed federal lawsuits against the FAA and NTSB and members of Congress, seeking to report the corruption, and what was done to him to silence him.
- Discover the Trojan horse corruption in the three branches of government that constitutes a greater threat and source of harm to Americans than posed by terrorists from outside the United States.
- Discover how an informed, outraged, and patriotic public could have halted the corruption and prevented the resulting tragedies.
- The post 9-11 responses have only covered up for the deep-seated culture that no government reorganization will address. Prepare for more tragedies made possible by the corruption, the cover-ups, and public denial.
- The block by President George Bush and members of Congress preventing a meaningful investigation into the blame for 9-11.
