The author, Rodney Stich, has appeared as guest and expert on over 2500 radio and television shows since 1978 in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Holland, Germany, and France. He probably holds a record for 30 years of aggressively seeking to expose government corruption, having suffered devastating retaliation for doing so. He has become a national focal point for other government agents seeking to expose the high-level government corruption that is inflicting enormous and in many cases fatal harm upon innocent people. Both books reveal shocking government misconduct covered up by every government check and balance.
