Ref: Request for information, documents, relating to Rodney Matthews

Dear Mr. Dornan,

First, let me compliment you on your courage in trying to help Rodney Matthews when he came to you for help. I'm wondering when you started campaigning for re-election as it relates to your February 2, 1996 letter to the Department of Justice inquiring about the Matthews case. I'm curious whether there is a possible connection. As you know, it is dangerous for any member of Congress to delve into CIA or Justice Department matters.

I am in frequent touch with Mr. Matthews and I am nearing the end on a book manuscript that features him in it, along with several others who suffered a similar fate. I wonder if you have any letters, documents, and/or information relating to the Matthews matter that you can either share with me, or, if you have no other need for them, to lend them or give them to me.

I'm sure Matthews would not object since he has been providing me with a great amount of information and documentation.

Sincerely,

Rodney Stich
