Dear Mr. Stich:

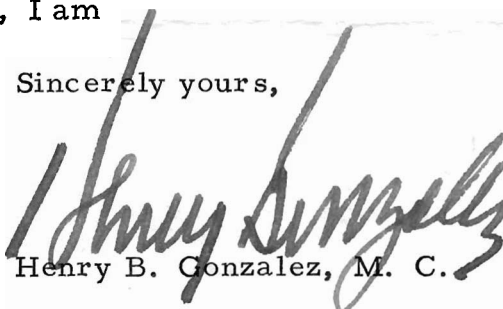

I was very pleased to receive your informative letter concerning aviation safety.

For more than two years I have been speaking out on incompetence and irresponsibility within the FAA, and on the matter of aviation safety generally. Any information you can give me on this subject would therefore be deeply appreciated.

I may also want to use portions of your letter to insert into the Congressional Record, if that is alright with you. Of course, I would not use your name, for obvious reasons. Please let me hear from you again.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,

Henry B. Gonzalez, M. C.
