September 4, 2002

Senator Charles Schumer
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Ref: Submitting two documents that were accidentally omitted from letter sent yesterday concerning the events of September 11, 2001.

To Senator Schumer:

The certified mail letter that I sent to you yesterday, relating to the September 11, 2001, hijackings, failed to include the first page of a lawsuit that seeks to report to a federal court the criminal activities that I discovered as a federal investigator that had the primary blame for the successful hijackings of four airliners by 19 hijackers. And also, a copy of the letter sent to U.S. district judge U.S. district judge Moursey relating to the latest judicial attempt to block the reporting of those matters.

Sincerely,

Rodney Stich
