

The Publicized Abuse of Veterans is Just the Tip of the Iceberg!

The Walter Reed Hospital and VA medical scandals, and politicizing of DOJ offices, are just the tip of the iceberg. The following are two examples:

Decorated War Veteran and FBI Special Agent Imprisoned For Reporting High-Level Corruption

Lt. Col. Richard Taus, highly decorated military pilot in Vietnam, who adopted a Vietnam war orphan, is serving a 20-50 year prison sentence. His problems started when, as a FBI Special Agent, he discovered corruption related to the secret arming of Iraq during the 1980s and the murders perpetrated by an FBI supervisory agent in collaboration with a Colombo Mafia boss in New York.

Circumventing the DOJ cover-ups, he reported the corruption to members of Congress, who continued the cover-up, and allowed Taus to be falsely charged by the FBI with a sham charge so as to silence him.

The silencing tactic succeeded. Taus now languishes at Dannemora state prison. The orphan he rescued is now without a parent.

Former Naval Aviator Sentenced to Prison For Reporting High-Level Corruption

Former Naval aviator Rodney Stich, a key government agent, was sent to prison for six months in retaliation for reporting to a federal judge, under 18 USC § 4, the corrupt activities that he discovered. Some of which were responsible for the conditions resulting in a series of airline disasters, including those of September 11, 2001.

Corruption in DOJ and Congress

Among the letters sent to the author, himself a war veteran and a victim, were the following:

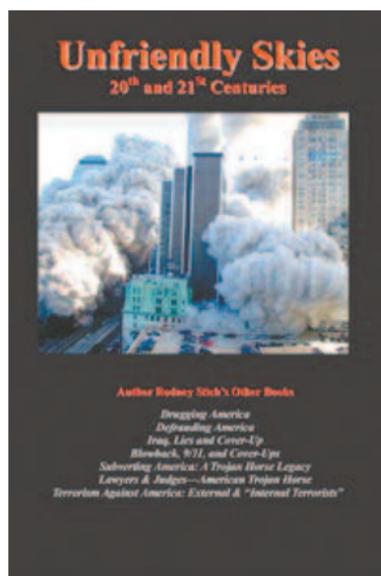

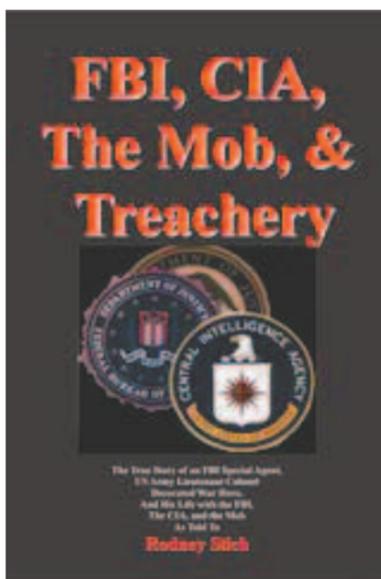

“My faith has held me together, and brought you into my family. I consider you God’s special blessing to Mother, David and me. If nothing else, I will forever credit as being the “American Father” who finally exposed the truths about a sinister and corrupt government. Make that “American Patriot, Father of A Clean and Just U.S. Government.”

“What a hell of a book you wrote! There will certainly be a place in heaven for you. I’m so impressed it’s hard to grasp the feeling.”

“Thank you for having the courage to make this book available to the public. It is so comforting to know that there are still great American heroes in this wonderful United States of America. Thanks to good Americans like yourself.”
