

The Shocking Relationship Between 9/11 and the imprisonment of a former federal safety agent!

The mirage of liberty and justice for all in America is put in question when discovering the repeated retaliation taken to silence a former federal safety agent seeking to expose the corruption in certain government offices that made possible certain airline disasters, including the 9/11 terrorist hijackings.

The obstruction of justice tactics taken against that safety agent by federal judges included, for instance:

- Repeatedly blocking him from reporting corrupt activities in the FAA, FBI, and CIA to a federal court, as required by the crime reporting statute, 18 U.S.C. § 4.
- Repeatedly issuing unlawful and unconstitutional orders barring him from filing any papers in any federal district or appellate court for the remainder of his life. These orders halted his attempts to report the deadly corruption.
- Charged him with criminal contempt of court when he sought to report additional criminal activities in key government positions that he and a group of other former federal agents discovered as part of their official duties. They sentenced the near-70-year-old former federal agent to six months in federal prison for attempting to report the corruption that would soon result in 3,000 deaths on 9/11.
- While in prison, federal judges issued unlawful and unconstitutional orders seizing and liquidating the assets that funded his exposure actions.
- When he filed objections to the seizure, he was again charged with criminal contempt of courts for having exercised that legal and constitutional right.
- Discover the role of federal judges and even Supreme Court justices in the obstruction of justice tactics used to silence the former safety agent.
- Then there is the plight of a highly decorated Vietnam War hero and FBI agent sentenced to federal prison to silence him after he sought to report criminal activities that he discovered when working under the FBI Supervisory Agent now charged with four murders in a Brooklyn court.
- These are only the highlights of conduct that suggests a secret government exists in America.
